

Unlocking the Potential of Female Migrants as Entrepreneurs in the Digital Age

Meet Renata Netto, Psychoanalyst.

“I guess it comes down to a simple choice, really. Get busy living, or get busy dying!”

*Andy Dufresne
(character of “The Shawshank Redemption”)*

Which project activities did you participate in and why?

I gave an interview telling about how was my experience as an entrepreneur and how it helped me to fit in the Portuguese community.

What three things did you like most about your experience?

- Freedom and Antonomy
- Growing up as a professional
- A meaningful job

What are the three most important characteristics in an migrant entrepreneur?

- Clear objectives and goals, in order to be able to face the challenges of the process
- Resilience, because sometimes it's necessary to postpone plans and change routes in order to pay the bills.
- Patience, because not everything happens in our time.
